Mysterious Red River Craft With a
Vicilous Dog Aboard.

Paris, Tex., Nov. 25.—The Federal officials received a telegram from Arthur City. I. T., last night stating that a boat had been discovered adrift upon Red River, the sole living occupant of which was a half-famished and vicious dog.

A party of clitzens secured a skiff and pulled alongside the derellet, and were horrified to find the decks of the craft covered with blood and the body of a man stretched across the thwarts.

The head had been all but severed from the body, and the boat hore marks of a termble struggle. Owing to the swiftness of the current and the bediggrency of the dog, the party were simble as some the boat.

Points lower low the river have been notified and dight to trads dispatched to intercept the notified and dight to trads dispatched with adultery, is to have an absolute divorce.

Initial has been agreed to by those who represented the different interests at the conference brought after the collapse of the adultery charges at the Jackson, N. H., hearing.

The divorce has been amicably agreed to and will be saught from the Rhode Island courts upon the ground of refusal to provide, or something of that sort.

Nothing seriously inimized to the respondent will be alleged. The negotiations of the past few days have resulted in a complete settlement of the whole Colt family scandal, including an agreement to the withdrawal of the $200,000 suit against millinonaire Joseph J. Van Alen for alienating the affections of Mrs. Colt.

Col. Colt will retain the family mansion in Bristol, asid the money payment to the wife will be a sum of money to be paid in full sides express satisfaction at the result. Mr. Van Alen is said to have agreed to the payment of a liberal sum, largely to escape being dragged into court.

It was reported today that as a counter move to the contemplated action of the Southern Railway Company the Bay Line would establish a line to Richmond in opposition to the Richmond and York River Line.

I'resident R. C. Hoffman, of the Bay Line, in speaking of the matter, said: "I am rejuctant to bring about any trouble in transportation matters. Established lines and routes best adapted to meet the demands of the public should not, in my opinion, be interfered with.

"Of course, I shall pprotect the interests of the public should not, in my opinion, be interfered with.

Insurance Robbers Fall Out Over Spoils Division and Peach.

Detroit, Nov. 25.—Abraham Durling, a Fanning mill manufacturer, and his wife, together with Mrs. Nellie Goodf and George Smith, a clerk in a clothing store, are under arrest on the charge that they conspired to aid in defrauding insurance companies out of $4.000 in October, 1893.

Mrs. Durling and Mrs. Gould were partners in the millinery business, and their stock was insured for $4.000 in the Phoenix, Continental and Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

A few days latter the place burned out, but the companies refused appment. Suit-was brought and the complanants were

A few days later the place wheat the companies refused payment. Suit was brought and the complainants were awarded damages in full with interest. Smith testified that he had inventoried the stock, which equaled the amount of the in-stock, which equaled the minds agrander.

Now Mrs. Gould says that the place was set on fire by Mrs. Durling and that Smith lied in his statement about the inventory. The four, it is said, quarreled over dividing the money.

Mrs. Gould alleges that Mrs. Durling burned another store and collected insurance amounting to $550.
